

ENRICH YOUR STUDENTS' EDUCATION WITH STORY & SONG

International Storytelling Center, Jonesborough, TN

Coming to PA schools Sept. 17 & 18*

"The children were spellbound."

Christine Forstner
PTA Reflections
Committee Chairperson

"The songs and music you blend into your stories really enhanced the experience for our students."

Brent Palmer, Principal
Westland Elementary, West Jordan, Utah

Since 1990, Leticia Pizzino's storytelling has enlivened audiences in-person and online. As a storyteller, musician and teaching artist, Leticia masterfully intertwines her animated storytelling with beautiful singing and fun instruments. Plus, her program aligns with the Pennsylvania Academic Standards.

She's performed nationwide in schools, libraries, senior centers and facilities, and prisons, as well as at festivals, fairs, conferences, private parties, and corporate events. She's also presented at the National Convention of the National Association for Gifted Children and several library association conferences.

Leticia has a master's degree in Storytelling and Communication Studies from East Tennessee State University and a bachelor's degree in Music from Brigham Young University. She's also a certified vocalist.

Reserve Your Storytelling Program Today

Half day or full-day programs; assemblies or in classrooms. Student workshops and teacher in-service are also available. (Leticia is able to work within most budgets.) For more information or to schedule your school's storytelling event:

* Other dates available upon request.

Leticia PizzinoTM
Storyteller/Musician

800.669.7533 | C: 423.606.8294
storytellerLeticia.com | leticia@storytellerLeticia.com

